Friendsgiving SHARING MENU

Friendsgiving is all about sharing.

Browse our menu of business-to-business agreements to bring your collaboration plan to the table.

SHARED PLATES

Set rules and goals to make the most of resources like facilities, equipment, and ideas.

Lease

Share buildings, land, and equipment – set schedules & terms of use.

License

Name your ideas and set terms for use, remix, and royalties.

Teaming Agreement - Project-Based

Chase a job or project with a one-time collaboration.

POTLUCK

Share and empower talent between organizations – but be clear about who does what.

Secondment*

Share an employee to hone their skills or increase yours.

Joint Employment*

Share an employee to tackle a joint project.

Employee Lease*

Lend an employee for a special purpose or project.

ALL THE FIXIN'S

Set the table for bigger plans with more formal place settings.

Merger*

Combine forces with a step-by-step plan to meet whatever comes next.

Acquisition*

Grow your organization by buying the property, accounts (and sometimes risk) of someone else.

Teaming Agreement - Joint Venture

Go together like salt and pepper? Set up a long-term collaboration.

Subcontract

Offload some of your plate to a specialized business partner.

Affiliation Agreement

Split the marketing tab with similar organizations – establish standards, branding, and even events.

 Undercooked plans to change workers' jobs will increase your risk of employment liability. Talk with an attorney first for strategies to mitigate risk.*
